   d. Vivan's group discussed being okay with endorsing the fee and would want to change the second line of the SFAC endorsement.
   e. Charlene comments how SFAC can work on communicating that message more so there is less communication. In the wrong context, might come off wrong and be disadvantaged when it comes to voting. Important for voters to look at the endorsements since most people do not read the referendum language
   f. Mathew thinks we are adding a layer of bias that would confuse students and it is important to leave to the student' research and not our bias research, because this would be unbeneficial
   g. Charlene thinks the last part of the second part of the endorsement could be worded differently
   h. Vivan suggests to change it to “without having to heavily rely on other jobs”
      i. Alvin likes this suggestion
